Split the class into half. Each half does the below activity and then swaps:

Activities:

- 7) Read the Mad Lib story
- 8) Read a book, Room on the Broom or something similar

Making Slime:

Ingredients: liquid Elmer's glue, liquid Tide (ratio 2:1), food coloring & creepy crawlers

Parent Helpers pass out one Dixie cup per child while the Mad Lib game has started (there are 20-21 children per class, ask the teacher before starting):

Directions

- Place paper towel square in front of each kid for placemat and cleanup ease

- Place the popsicle stick in the cup for easy measuring. Pour the glue to the first line and the detergent on top to the second line (appx 1 ounce, ~2 tablespoons, glue and half an ounce, ~1 tablespoon. detergent)
- Add 2 small drops of food coloring (~ size of pencil eraser in total) in Dixie cup.
- Mix with popsicle stick, then take out and squish/knead with hands until slime is no longer wet.
- Add googly eyes and other creepy crawlers (appx 5 per child)
- Put the slime into ziplock bags to take home
- Give each child a hand wipe

Wrap the Mummy

Split the class in half. One half does this game while the other half does the Spider Toss.

In groups of 3 or 4, one child volunteers to be wrapped in toilet paper. The other 2 or 3 children each get their own roll of toilet paper. Take pictures (as long as it's OK to photograph the group, check with the teacher if there is anyone in the class that isn't allowed to get their photo taken).

Spider Toss

Split the class in half. One half does this game while the other half does the Mummy Wrap.

Line up the appx 10 children. One room helper will have hung up a spider web during the mad libs. One at a time, each child will catapult a plastic spider on a spoon by holding the spoon down by the handle while, with the other hand, pushing the spoon face down. Let go and catapult the object as far as possible away from the spoon. The goal is to get as many plastic ring spiders as possible into a web within 30 seconds to see how many stick to the web (use a sand timer or a stopwatch). Each child gets to keep 5 spider rings after all games are over.

Thriller

Everyone goes back into one group and dances to Thriller:

Decorate a foam pumpkin

Room parents pass out one foam pumpkin per child. Other room parents put a handful of foam pumpkin decorations per group to use to decorate the pumpkins.
